About the Even and Objective :It's that time of the year where all the students will engross themselves in the coming placement days. On this grooming period, we team IETE had organized a quiz contest with an aim to enhance their skill development and knowledge up gradation matching the questions from the interview set. It was organized on 29th January,2022 from 12:00pm onwards.

125 students from all the years have participated and has given their utmost in qualifying the contest. We're glad about their participation in this contest. The response and enthusiasm in the contest have been a mark for us for more such ventures in the upcoming future times. The contest was MCQ based. The questions mainly covered areas from Python/Java (as per the candidate's choice) and DBMS. As mentioned during the contest about certain rules, we've followed them very strictly to avoid plagiarism. Certificate of Achievement have been awarded to the top 3 winners of the contest. Also participation certificate have been provided he top 50 participants from the contest.

The poster is for the 'Quiz-Pod' event presented by IETE HIT SF. It features a blue background with a central white cloud-like shape containing the event title and details.
